Subject: Tactical Aerial Resource Management Study Report

Attached is the Final Committee Report of the Tactical Aerial Resource Management Study (TARMS). The contents include an analysis of the organization, staffing and aerial platforms necessary to safely and cost effectively manage and direct aerial fire suppression resources. The report will be reviewed by May 1, 1999, by a Management Options Team which will propose options for implementation of each of the recommendations.

A copy of the report is being sent to each State Aviation Manager. If you have any comments or questions on the TARMS Report, please contact Larry Mahaffey at 208-387-5160.
