Instruction Memorandum No. OF&A 2001-021
Expires: 09/30/02

To: AFOs
From: Director, Office of Fire and Aviation
Subject: National Fire and Aviation Management Policy on Harassment

Program Area: Equal Employment Opportunity

Purpose: This Instruction Memorandum (IM) documents the policy of the Director, Office of Fire and Aviation on the prevention of harassment in the workplace.

Policy/Action: It is the policy of the Office of Fire and Aviation to prohibit harassment in all of its various forms, to maintain a work environment that is free of harassment, and to ensure that such conduct by any BLM employee will not be tolerated.

Our standard is to strive for a work environment where people treat one another with respect. Managers, supervisors, and all employees, as well as our contractors, cooperators, and volunteers have the primary responsibility for creating and sustaining this harassment-free environment.

Managers and supervisors must take immediate action to stop harassment, to protect the people targeted by the harasser, and to take all reasonable steps to ensure that no further harassment or retaliation occurs. Employees who witness harassment should report it to the proper authority.

The work environment covers any area where employees work or where work-related activities occur, including travel. This includes field sites, government buildings, and other facilities such as fitness centers and campgrounds. Also included are vehicles and other conveyances used for travel.

Harassment is coercive or repeated, unsolicited and unwelcome verbal comments, gestures or physical contacts and includes retaliation for confronting or reporting harassment. Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Physical conduct: Unwelcome touching, standing too close, inappropriate or threatening staring or glaring, obscene, threatening, or offensive gestures.
- Verbal or written conduct: Inappropriate references to body parts, derogatory or demeaning comments, jokes, or personal questions; sexual innuendoes; offensive remarks about race, gender, religion, age, ethnicity, or sexual orientation, obscene letters or telephone calls; catcalls; whistles, sexually suggestive sounds; loud, aggressive, inappropriate comments or other vocal abuse.
- Visual or symbolic conduct: Display of nude pictures, scantily-clad, or offensively-clad people; display of offensive, threatening, demeaning, or derogatory symbols, drawings, cartoons, or other graphics; offensive T-shirts, coffee mugs, bumper stickers, or other articles.

Any employee who engages in harassment will face consequences ranging from verbal warnings and letters of reprimand, up to and including termination from employment, depending on the seriousness of the misconduct. Managers and supervisors who do not take action when they know or suspect that harassment is occurring will face the same range of consequences. Contractor staff who engage in harassment may be subject to comparable penalties from their employers, and a contractor who fails to enforce this policy may have its contract terminated. Visitors who harass may be removed from any workplace and prevented from returning.

Individuals who believe they are being harassed or retaliated against should exercise any one or more of the following options as soon as possible:

- Tell the harasser to stop the offensive conduct; and/or
- Tell a manager or supervisor about the conduct; and/or
- Contact your EEO Office, EEO Manager, a Special Emphasis Program Manager, EEO Counselor, or any other individual you trust that would take action.
- Contact a Human Resource Officer, if one is available, when you are on an incident.

In addition, you may seek help from your local Employee Assistance Program.

Time Frame: This IM is effective on receipt.

Budget Impact: The application of this policy to other program areas should have a positive impact on the budget by decreasing the cost of processing complaints of discrimination.

Background: Management has determined that employees need to be reminded of this policy on a yearly basis.

Manual/Handbook Sections Affected: No manual or handbook sections are affected.

Coordination: None.

Contact: If you have questions or concern regarding this policy, please contact Debie Chivers, EEO Manager, Office of Fire and Aviation at (208) 387-5454 or your State/Center EEO Manager.
